Big Storm.

A terrific wind and hail storm visited Lancaster Friday afternoon and, for a time, looked like a cyclone was bearing down upon us. Many trees were uprooted, telephone wires crossed and garden truck damaged.

If a young lady has red hair, it is a burn, but if her brother has red hair, he is "red-headed Bill." If the young lady has a four dollar position in a store, it is a position, but if Bill has the same place, he has only a "job."

Premiums.

The Howard Tailoring Co., of Chicago, is giving a pure fur felt hat with each suit sold during May. They are "A 1" hats and the latest styles. No change in prices. Fits guaranteed. Give us a trial order, as many are doing.
M. D. Hughes, agent.

Not having the time to collect them, I have left my accounts in the hands of E. Brown for collection. All those indebted will please call at his office, the Police Court room and settle at once and save cost. W. H. Lackey, by E. Brown, agent.

"Next!"

Henry and John Duncan have consolidated their shops and are now in the old stand over Powell's store, corner Public Square and Lexington street. Polite attention, sharp razors, clean towels and many years experience fit them to do the best of work. tf.

The Sidewalks.

The citizens are beginning to comply with the sidewalk ordinance and many new pavements are being laid. A new one will be put down the entire length of Richmond street on opposite side from the present plank walk. Many others are in course of construction.

Fair at Richmond.

The ladies of Boonesboro Chapter, D. A. R., says The Register, assisted by the prominent horsemen and stockmen of Madison county, will hold a fair at the fair grounds in Richmond June 1st and 2nd. The proceeds will be devoted to erecting a monument at Boonesboro.

Contractors.

Messrs. Hocker and Greening, of Lincoln county, were here a few days ago making estimates on building the Owsley block, with a view to putting in a bid for the contract. Dr. Owsley is in the band wagon and the procession of enterprise is moving grandly on.

Runaway.

Mr. Robert Brown was driving near Paint Lick, last Sunday, when his horse took fright, as he raised an umbrella, ran at full speed, Mrs. Brown jumping out and having her collar bone fractured, while the baby was bruised up and the buggy torn to pieces.

Handsome Business Cards.

Tom Hammond and Frank Pumphrey, of THE RECORD office, have made arrangements with a city firm where they can give you 100 handsome business cards in a handsome aluminum case for only 50cts. The case has your name engraved thereon and the whole outfit is pretty, and up-to-date. Give the boys an order.

Exchange Lensed.

Mr. Jesse Walden has leased of Dr. Kinnaird the Lancaster Telephone Exchange. The contract is for a term of years. As Mr. Walden has been in the business since its establishment, he knows how to run it, and we are satisfied he will make not only a success, but a pile of dollars out of his venture.

Save Money.

Come in Monday and get a suit of all wool goods at shoddy prices. They will wear you twice as long as common goods. If you buy of Howard Tailoring Company you will get a number 1 hat, with a suit, or a fine pair of suspenders, with a pair of pants, free. No change in prices.

M. D. Hughes, Agent.

The Chesapeake & Ohio Ry. will sell round trip tickets to Washington D. C. and return on May 22d, at one fare for the round trip, tickets good ten days from date of sale, on account of the Peace Jubilee. Two Limited Vestibuled Trains from Lexington and Central Kentucky daily.
Geo. W. Barney Div. Pass. Agent.

Big Times at Richmond.

There is a movement on foot to hold trotting and pacing races at Richmond in July in connection with the street fair that is to be held there. From the way the Richmond papers speak of the scheme, it will be a go. The street fair will be conducted in the city in the forenoon, and the races at the track in the afternoon.

Danville Court.

Many of our citizens went to Danville Monday, ostensibly to attend court, but in fact, to hear Hon. W. J. Stone, candidate for governor, speak. Mr. Stone has many enthusiastic followers here, who claim that they will carry the county for him. Eight, five Federal and three Confederate veterans, went in one wagon and they are all for Stone.

Take a Paper and Read it.

Everyone should take a good, wide-awake paper and keep posted as to the many frauds. It is said that the confidence men cleaned up about $400 in Cloverport on circus day and a large share of it was from Hancock county men who followed the circus from Hawesville. Had the hayseed been readers of their home paper, they would have known better.

Good for Garrard Man.

R. L. Walker, living near town, has forty acres corn that is upseveral inches, and is perhaps the best in the county. He comes from Garrard that is noted for its fine corn raising and Jesamine farmers might learn a few points about the cultivation of this crop by casting their eyes westward as they go out the Keene pike.—Jessamine Journal.

Commencement Exercises.

The commencement exercises of the Graded School will be held in the Presbyterian church next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. There are four graduates, Misses Olivia Sweeney, Mary Burnside, Maybelle Royston and Mr. James Anderson. The public is cordially invited to attend the exercises and the building will doubtless be taxed to hold the crowd.

Handsome Tribute.

The Monument recently placed in the Landram lot of the Cemetery here, was erected by Mrs. William C. McFarland to the memory of her father and mother. It was the desire of both Mrs. McFarland and her husband that the monument should be of Scotch Granite, but Gen. Landram often expressed a preference for white marble and his wishes were considered in the selection made.

Protracted Meeting.

Special revival services began at the Christian church on Monday night. The pastor, Eld. C. E. Powell, is assisted by Eld. E. L. Powell, an eloquent minister of Louisville. Large crowds are attending, much interest is manifested and a rich harvest of souls is expected. The meetings will likely continue two weeks, and an invitation is extended to everybody to attend, regardless of condition in life or religious faith. The object is to do good for all classes of people.

Hope They'll Come Here.

Kentucky boys will start in next winter with empty pocketbooks. Wallace's, Forepaw's and Ringling Bros. circuses will all visit the state this season, to say nothing of four or five smaller tented aggregations that are already headed this way. The largest dog show in the business is already in the state for a month's tour, and Buffalo Bill's Wild West will visit most of the larger towns. What a feast for young America and his no less interested grown-up Mothers.—Ex

Missionary Contribution.

Elder C. E. Powell delivered a strong sermon, at his church, on Sunday, on the importance of contributing to missionary work. He said that $200 must go from that church if he had to pay most of it himself. After the sermon $176 was contributed and the other $24 was raised afterward. This speaks well for that church, and we would like to know if there is a single church in a town the size of Lancaster, in Kentucky, that did as well for the missionary cause.

Are There Any in Lancaster?

The man who says he doesn't believe in advertising and refuses to use the newspapers for that purpose generally advertises in some other way. Hotel registers, theater programs and such things are likely to have his ad in them. Then he eludes what he pays for space in them to advertising instead of to charity or to profit and loss, and goes on swearing that advertising doesn't pay. There ought to be a Keeley institute or a hospital for the treatment of this class of lunatics, and if some enterprising man will start one we will tell him where to find patients enough to fill it in about fifteen minutes.—National Advertiser.

No Trains.

The gentlemen who told us the new trains would be put on this branch were evidently talking through their hats, as the springs schedules went into effect Sunday, and if a day passenger train has visited Lancaster no one has heard of the fact. The day train over the K. D. have been made earlier, but our present train will continue to pass down at 11:20 a. m. it has been doing heretofore. There is only one way to get the day trains, and that is to go before the general manager and explain to him the tenfold advantages the company would reap by running their trains to Rowland. The Commercial Club should take up the matter. It can be done.

Water Works.

A number of tax-payers have petitioned the committee, which was appointed by the City Board of Councils to report on the advisability of establishing water works, to report favorably. The most potent reason urged, for favoring the enterprise, is the fact that insurance rates would be reduced one-third, which would re-pay the tax levied for the works. Beside this, the comfort and convenience derived from the system is beyond estimation, when compared to the present condition of affairs. Again, the Sanitary condition of the town would be improved, when we are possessed of the means to remove filth and clean the town generally. Statistics show that disease is less prevalent in towns with works than in those without them. We hope that the Board will consider the matter deliberately before taking action.

Notice to Trustees.

Under instructions from the State Superintendent two Trustees were elected in each School District in Garrard County last October; the one receiving the greatest number of votes to qualify as the regular trustees on July 1 1899, and the one receiving next to the greatest number, to qualify at once to fill a vacancy supposed to be then existing. Since that election the Court of Appeals has decided that there was no vacancy at that time, but that the old Trustees hold over one year longer. Hence, the man receiving next to the greatest vote qualified through mistake and was, in reality, never a Trustee. Therefore, the one who received the GREATEST NUMBER OF VOTES at the October election will be recognized by me as the legal Trustee for the ensuing term and he will accordingly qualify some time during the month of June. ELISA J. Lusk, Co. Supt.

Old Vets in Danville.

A large number of Confederate veterans met at Danville Monday and held an enjoyable reunion. The Advocate says the veterans assembled in the side yard of the Hotel at half-past twelve and about one o'clock Captain Richards summoned the boys to dinner with a bugle call when the column set out in double-quick march toward the dining room. The decorations there were artistic and in keeping with the occasion.

The dinner, prepared by Capt. Richards and his most excellent wife, was a splendid interpretation of genuine Old Kentucky cookery. It was not served "a la carte," nor strung out in small dishes through seven or eight courses, leaving a man as hungry as when he sat down, but was put on the table in barbecue style and in quantities sufficient to feed a multitude. On motion, it was agreed to hold a reunion every year.

Bastardly Deed.

The Guthrie, Oklahoma Leader publishes an account of the brutal shooting of Miss Ella Arnold in that city by a man named Purdens. The young lady is a daughter of I. B. Arnold, formerly of this county and is widely connected here. The brute who committed the crime was a constable and went to the house of the young lady's brother-in-law to serve some papers. There being no men about the premises, the man became abusive and, drawing a huge revolver, started in the door. Miss Arnold reached for a revolver when the big cut-throat shot her. The ball passed through the girl's body, but hopes of her recovery are entertained. The Leader says excitement runs high, but Purdens has not been lynched. If there ever was a case where Judge Lynch should step in, it is in this. The Leader says some claim the fellow is not responsible, but the thing for the courts to do is hang a few of these "irresponsible" people, and the insanity dodge will not be attempted so frequently.
